The Alexander Campbell's Entertain.
The Alexander Campbells entertained informally at dinner, this week in honor of the Frank Richardson, who leave next week for the Coast.

Wichman's Dinner.

Friday evening, Mr. Henry Wichman was the host at a charmingly appointed dinner; the table was decorated in violets. Among those present were Mr. Henry Wichman, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Klamp, Mrs. Mary Gunn and Mr. and Mrs. Brainard-Smith.

Dr. and Mrs. Wood's Dinner.

Doctor and Mrs. Wood entertained Wednesday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Focke, who have recently returned from a trip abroad. Mrs. Focke is handsomer than ever, and her beauty is enhanced by her numerous fetching toilettes, purchased on the other side.

Captain and Mrs. Marix Dinner.

Captain and Mrs. Marix entertained at a jolly little dinner, Friday evening in honor of the hostess's birthday. The table was artistically decorated in fragrant purple violets. Those present were Captain and Mrs. Marix, Paymaster and Mrs. Hornberger, Mr. and Mrs. J. Morton Riggs, Miss Katherine Stevens and Lieutenant Willis.

From Honolulu.

William G. Irwin has arrived from Honolulu, having been accompanied en route by Mrs. Richard Ivers, mother of Mrs. Irwin, and Lansing Mizner. Mrs. Ivers is en route to Philadelphia to be with her two daughters, Mrs. Edward Moore Robinson and Mrs. Irwin, the latter having arrived two weeks ago with her daughter from Europe.—San Francisco Post, Oct. 14.

Mrs. Wall's Luncheon.

Mrs. Ormond Wall's luncheon was much enjoyed by the coterie of friends that were present. The affair was given Thursday, magnolia bougainvillea was arranged in graceful sprays on the table, proving an effective decoration. Among those who accepted Mrs. Wall's invitation were Mrs. Fred Smith, Mrs. Arthur Wall, Mrs. Theodore Lansing, Mrs. McStocker, Mrs. Sam Peck and Mrs. Emil Waterman.

Mr. and Mrs. Furor's Moonlight Picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Furor were host and hostess at a picnic Wednesday around Diamond Head, the party comprised twenty of Honolulu's young society folk. A bon fire was built on the beach, where a delicious supper was cooked, and the coffee which was brewed was voted "Nectar fit for the gods." After a delightful evening, the party returned to Honolulu by moonlight.

Mrs. Swanzy's Children's Party.

Mrs. Francis Swanzy is giving a Halloween Dinner Dance in honor of Elizabeth and Phoebe Carter. Little Rosamond Swanzy will act as hostess; about forty guests will be present. The decorations will carry out the Halloween celebration, and a number of "stunts" have been planned, which undoubtedly will provoke great merriment among the young people. After dinner, dancing will be participated in, many graceful Barn Dances, and the Boston will be indulged in.

Portola Dinners.

Mrs. Eleanor Martin gave a Portola dinner last evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Russell Lukens. Yellow chrysanthemums and American Beauty roses were combined in a way to carry out the festive colors.

Miss Mabel Fee was hostess at another dinner, her guest of honor being Miss Alice MacFarlane of Honolulu. The other guests were Miss Erna St. Goar, Miss Fernanda Pratt, Miss Margaret Ross, Melvin Pfaff, Jerome

Fee, Philip Paschel, Dudley Sales and Philip Funke.

Captain and Mrs. Sterling Postley Adams entertained friends at dinner at their home at the Presidio, the affair being a courtesy in honor of Mrs. Weggermann of Washington, D. C. Later on the guests shared Captain and Mrs. Adams' box at the theater.—S. P. Post, Oct. 16.

Hawaiian Matron Berkeley Visitor.

Berkeley, Oct. 14.—Mrs. C. G. White, a prominent young matron of Haku, Hawaiian Islands, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Fisk, in her Haste street home, and many affairs have been given in her honor.

Mrs. White, who was formerly a Miss Fisk, attended the university and was a member of the Phi Beta Phi, which has welcomed her to this city.

Mrs. White will remain here for a month, when she will be rejoined by her husband, who is visiting his parents in Cleveland. He is a member of a well known family of that city in large manufacturing enterprises. He has lived in the Hawaiian Islands for a number of years and owns one of the largest pineapple plantations there.—S. P. Call.

Engagement.

The engagement is announced of Miss Dorothy E. Sumner, daughter of Professor and Mrs. J. H. Sumner of Oakland, and Elmer E. Richards of Hilo, Hawaii.

Miss Sumner is well known in musical circles on both sides of the bay, being very talented as a vocalist and pianist. Professor Sumner has been identified with the high schools of Oakland for years, and the family is highly connected. Miss Sumner is at present visiting relatives in Washington, D. C. in Boston and in New York, making her farewells preliminary to residing on the islands. The wedding will take place likely in December. Mr. Richards is one of the prominent business men of the islands, having important affiliations at this port.—S. P. Post, Oct. 16.

VICE-PRESIDENT'S SON

WEDS HEIRESS
Utica, Oct. 5.—Richard Updike Sherman, son of the Vice-President and Mrs. James Schoolcraft Sherman, and Miss Eleanor Millar, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Millar, an heiress, were married at Calvary Episcopal Church here this evening at 8 o'clock in the presence of a brilliant and fashionable gathering. The ceremony was performed by the rector, the Rev. E. H. Coley.

The maid of honor was Miss Gertrude Millar, a sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids were Miss Florence Comstock and Miss Margaret Crouse of Utica, Miss Isabella Mott of Hamilton and Miss Katherine D. Upham of Claremont, N. H. Mr. Sherman's attendant was George H. Seward of Buffalo, his classmate at Hamilton College. The ushers were John D. White, Hubert D. Kernan, Russell H. Brennan, Edward F. Cokingsham and Merwin K. Hart of Utica, Edward W. Root of Clinton, Frederick G. Baglan of Danville and Harley L. Stowell of New York.

During the past week a number of dinners and luncheons were given in honor of the couple. At one given at the home of Mrs. Babcock, Mr. Sherman's grandmother, checks for $5,000 were given the bridegroom, his two brothers and his cousin, Sherill Babcock. Young Mr. Sherman's bride was given an old Swiss watch, once won by Mrs. Babcock's mother.

Mr. Sherman is president of the Consolidated Water Company here. He was one time instructor in mathematics at Hamilton College. Until recently he was secretary to Collector Loeb at the Port of New York.

Miss Elizabeth Leslie Wight who has been the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Kinau Wilder at "Esbank" for the past year, leaves in the Alameda for Christinia, Norway, where she will be married on her arrival to Herr Alf. Thorwald Hurum, head of the Scandinavian Tobacco Trust at Langaard, Christinia. Owing to the deep mourning of the family, the wedding will be very quiet, taking place at the American Consulate. The engagement is one of several years standing, the young people having met in Berlin where both were students. Mr. Hurum is both a musician and a composer; several years ago there was a musical competition at the Royal Academy in Berlin; out of the three thousand students, Mr. Hurum was one of the five to have his composition accepted; he only had these compositions printed in order that his father could see them before he passed away. After taking his degree at the Hochschule he will enter the Diplomatic Corps. The Hurum home, on Josephine Glade, is one of the most beautiful places in Christinia—occupying a block in the heart of the city. Miss Wight is a girl of versatile nature, she inherits, from her grandmother Wilder, a charm of conversation that is most pleasing. In her four years abroad she has traveled in nearly every country, meeting many delightful people, and having many interesting experiences. One summer in Norway, while walking in the woods near "Voxen Kollen," she met and conversed with the King and Queen of Norway—the Queen of England and the Czarina of Russia, and had the honor of taking their photographs. Her year at home has been both delightful and profitable, having accepted the position of "Higher English Teacher" in the Normal School for a few months, and during that time revised the English course for the Senior class. This gifted young girl has been busy the last few months on her grandmother's book "Memoirs of Elizabeth Kinau Wilder" which is now in the Press. The favored few, who have enjoyed the proof copies, say it is the most interesting, and charming work portraying the old Hawaiian Days. It is in the form of narrative, and several political letters of the Judd family will appear in print, for the first time. For the present it will not be on sale, but strictly a gift book. Among Miss Wight's wedding gifts, is a beautiful painting of Hawaiian scenery, a gift from the artist and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. D. Howard Hitchcock. Miss Wight will exhibit it, in the Spring, at the Royal Academy in Christinia. This popular young girl has received many beautiful, and costly gifts, her future mother-in-law has presented her with a $800 silver service, which numbers over sixteen pieces, and a generous check to purchase a new home—this being the custom of the Hurum family, to provide each member, upon their marriage, with a palatial home.

One of the prettiest luncheons of the season was given Tuesday by Mrs. Marix, wife of Captain Marix of the U. S. M. C. at their attractive home, on Bingham street. The highly polished table was ornamented with hand made dollies, embroidered in chrysanthemums. In fact it was a chrysanthemum luncheon, the center piece of the large, feathery flowers, was effective, and hand painted place cards with ornamentations of these flowers, added to the beauty of the appointments of the table. Mrs. Marix, looked charming in a lingerie frock; the guests present were Mrs. Walter Frear, Mrs. Uriel Seebree, Mrs. Corwin Rees, Princess Kalaniana'ole, Mrs. Sidney Ballou, Mrs. Ralph Foster, Mrs. Lincoln, Mrs. McClellan, Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. Joseph Gilman, and Miss Irmgard Scafer; after luncheon the guests participated in Bridge—whilst—this luncheon is the first of a series of three, the second function will be given week after next.

Last Saturday afternoon Misses Angues were the hostesses at a swimming party at the Robert Lewers' Waikiki home. After an enjoyable swim in the briny deep a delicious buffet luncheon was served under the hau tree on the beach. Those present were Mrs. John Angus, Miss Vera Damon, Miss Blanche Soper, Miss Leslie Wight, Mrs. Hoffman, Mrs. Clifford B. High, Miss Ella Wight, Miss Dodge, Mrs. George Angus, Miss Fred Angus, Mrs. Frederic Klamp, Mrs. Austin, Miss Wadman, Mrs. Robert Lewers, Miss Schaefer, Miss Belle McCornist, Miss Arnold and Miss Grow of California, and Miss Peabody.

At their new home on Alewa Heights, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Coombs entertained at a delightful Buffet Supper on Saturday evening. Their guests were Dr. and Mrs. W. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Montrose Graham, Dr. and Mrs. Geo. Augur, Mr. and Mrs. Marston Campbell and their cousin Miss Zumont, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Steer, Miss Lena Whitford and Mr. W. Emory.

Early next month Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lord Chase will take possession of their home in Moss avenue. They recently returned from a sojourn of several months in the Hawaiian Islands. During their absence they leased their house to Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Hawley, formerly Miss Harriet Meek. The Hawleys are planning later to build their own home in Linda Vista.—San Francisco Call, Oct. 15.

Francis Cooper was the host of a house party given at his parents' Pearl City home during the last week end. Mrs. Marsden Campbell chaperoned the following young people who made up the jolly party, Margaret Restarick, Ina Ferguson, Margaret Center, Madeline Ross, Martha McChesney, Juliette Atwater, Payche Berry, Arthur Gilman, Francis Cooper, Marston Campbell, Ivan Graham, Allan Renton, Reynold McGrew, William Chaplin and Henley Chaplin.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Focke entertained informally at dinner, Sunday, at their Nuuanu Valley home. Roses were used lavishly as a decoration; those present were Doctor and Mrs. Rodiek, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Stackable and Mr. Muhlenford.
